THE COMMUNITY LIBRARY

“Libraries don’t just provide free access to books and other cultural materials, they also offer things like companionship for older adults, de facto child care for busy parents, language instruction for immigrants and welcoming public spaces for the poor, the homeless and young people.”

– Eric Klinenberg in The New York Times, 9 Sept, 2018

117,025

items were checked out from the Library last year.

11,959

kids, teens, and adults attended FREE programs and classes.

125,059

people visited the Library last year.

The Community Library brings information, ideas, and individuals together to enhance the cultural life of the community in central Idaho.

AND CAMPAIGN UPDATE

Jenny Emery Davidson, Ph.D.
Executive Director

Dear Friends,

The Community Library long has celebrated a spirit of openness – anybody can get a library card here for free; anybody can use the computers and wi-fi; anybody can sit by the fireplace, get warm, and dream. But this past year, as the long-overdue renovation began in earnest, we have taken that openness more literally than ever.

- We opened the floor over the West Collection in order to install concrete footings and new-and-improved duct work.
- We removed walls to make more space for the Lecture Hall and a new Young Adult Library.
- We widened the corridor between the Main Library and the Children’s Library to provide greater connectivity between departments.

We have been amazed as the construction team of Tim, Jacob, and Juan has demonstrated that what was once a solid barrier can become a passageway. It’s a metaphor for how we want to operate.

The architect Frank Lloyd Wright said, “We create our buildings and then they create us. Likewise, we construct our circle of friends and our communities and then they construct us.”

The Library renovation is a once-in-a-generation event. But the Library will continue to be constructed by the hundreds of people, of all ages and backgrounds, who walk through its doors every day, asking questions, sharing recommendations, and nudging new dreams into daylight.

Thank you for your support in keeping the Library open to all of our possibilities.

look what you helped happen!

Wood River Seed Savers cataloged local seeds and celebrated local growing initiatives.

212 kids read more than 2,000 books from the Bloom Bookmobile.

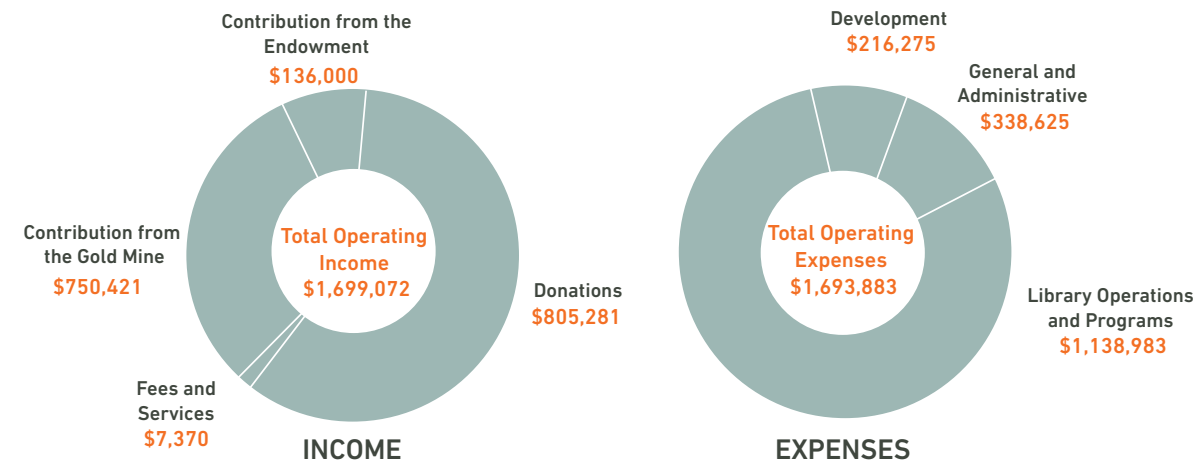

Kids learned about nature (and touched a bearded dragon) during Science Time!

Fourth graders learned about their home turf by exploring the Center for Regional History.

FISCAL YEAR 2017 - 2018

The Community Library is a privately-funded, privately-governed, publicly-minded cultural institution. Unlike most public libraries, it receives no dedicated tax dollars. It depends on individual donations and revenue from the Gold Mine Stores.
