

The Community Library is dedicated to providing free access to all forms of human knowledge to all people in our community, residents & visitors alike, in an open and welcoming environment.

THANK YOU FOR THE SUPPORT

The Fourth Annual Ernest Hemingway Symposium

Hemingway's Politics
2012 Schedule of Events

Hemingway is a trademark of Hemingway, Ltd. and under exclusive license of Hemingway, Ltd. through Fashion Licensing of America, Inc., New York, NY 10165 212-370-0770

Meet the Speakers:

Peter Moreira, Keynote Speaker, has been a foreign correspondent and is now a senior writer for the New York-based weekly The Deal. He is the author of Hemingway on the China Front

Clyde Moneyhun PhD~ A BSU Professor in the English Dept. as well as Director of Writing across the Curriculum, Dr. Moneyhun is a prolific writer and presenter on the National level.

Clay Morgan teaches creative writing and runs the Story Initiative at BSU, exploring Story and how Story works in our lives and our minds. His novels include Aura, Santiago, and others.

Jacky O'Connor, PhD~ At BSU Jacky teaches courses in American literature, drama, and film, and she received a 2011 National Endowment for the Humanities grant to develop a course on "What is Justice."

Mitch Wieland, a founder of BSU's MFA program, is the author of Willy Slater's Lane and God's Dogs. Willy Slater's Lane received starred reviews in Publisher's Weekly and Booklist.

Schedule of Events:

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 17

6pm

Pre-Symposium Event:
HBO Films "Hemingway and Gellhorn"

THURSDAY,

2pm

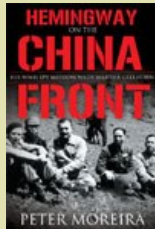

Screening: "All Quiet on the Western Front"

5pm Reception

Welcoming all participants and presenters.

6pm

Keynote Talk: Author Peter Moreira ~ Hemingway on the China Front: His Spy Mission with Martha Gellhorn. Introduction by Sandra Hofferber.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 19

9am

Screening: "A Farewell to Arms" (1932)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 20